—Attend the Christmas Bazar at the tabernacle to-day from 9 until 12 o'clock, noon. d1t —The great French actress, Rhea, will doubtless be received in Decatur by a large audience.
—The light steel rails on the St.
Louis branch of the Wabash are being replaced with heavier ones.
—The guards will issue invitations to-day for a grand military ball at the armory on Christmas night.
—Gov. John P. St. John, who spoke at Macon last evening, will deliver an address at Lincoln on Tuesday.
—Plush cloaks are now made in such close imitation of seal skin that across the street one can scarcely tell the difference.
—On the northwest corner of the old square is an elegant restaurant kept by H. Singletou. Oysters, warm meals, etc. d11d1t
—The members of the Decatur club entertained their lady friends at their elegantly furnished rooms in Haworth's block, last evening.
—Illinois has a sensation. A married man eloped with his wife's young and pretty sister and went west to grow up with the country.
—The grand jurors for the January term of the Macon county circuit court, will be found in our report of the proceedings of the supervisors.
—A special train with General Manager A. A. Talmage, of the Wabash, on board, passed through here yesterday from Toledo to St. Louis.
—The P. D. & E. engine No. 11 broke down yesterday just as it was going into Mattoon. Another engine was used to bring the afternoon passenger north.
—Milburn & Allen can furnish you with flour, feed, apples, potatoes, etc., at bottom prices, 629 East Eldorado street, Decatur, Illinois. Give them a call. d11d1t —In all constitutional and blood diseases, loss of appetite and nervous irritation are prominent symptoms for which Nichols' bark and iron is the standard and infallible remedy. dec11d&w1w —Quits a number of Decatur people went to Macon yesterday morning, and heard Ex-Governor St.
John speak during the afternoon and evening. They returned home on the late Central train.
—Despite the severity of prison rules and the watchfulness of the guards, convicts frequently effect an escape. Three gained their liberty in this way during November—two from Chester and one from Joliet.
—On Wednesday evening Officers Bailey and Helmick arrested three women of the town, who gave their names as Hattie Mullen, Sarah Wilson and Lydia McGowan. Yesterday they forfeited their bonds to one of the justices.
—Get your seats this morning for the Gypsy band concert at the opera house, on Monday evening, December 14th, at Curtis & Co.'s. Center seats, reserved, one dollar. Side seats, reserved, seventy-five cents.

—The Wesleyan University at Bloomington must be growing rich.
Two citizens of Macon county recently made large donations to it, and on Wednesday, Hon. R. L. Plumb presented the institution with a thousand dollars in bonds.
—Young American Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, will hold their regular adjourned meeting on Saturday night, December 12th. All members are requested to be present.
Business of importance to be attended to. By order of J. G. Plotner, secretary. d11d1t —Yesterday the O'Connor boys and young Heckler were tried before Justice Stevens for creating a disturbance at the corner of Wood and Webster streets on last Sunday evening. The lawyers were making their arguments when the justice adjourned until to-day, when the case will be finished.

MARRIAGE LICENSES were issued yesterday to the following parties: Joseph Keplogle and Miss Emma Girland, of Oakley; Albert W.
Miller and Miss Emma Stare, of Decatur; Ed Angst and Miss Katie Burest, of Picketown, Ohio.
—James Murphy, who was arrested on Wednesday by Officer Hewes, for making an indecent exposure of himself in the waiting room of the depot, was before Squire Curtis yesterday. He pleaded guilty, and in default of payment of a ten dollar fine was sent to the county jail.
—Robert Hurst, of Macon, has been locked up in the county jail. He was arrested there on complaint of Chas.
G. Fire, charged with disturbing the peace and chafing engine him to fight.
At a trial held before Justice Craig, of Macon, Hurst was fined four dollars and costs, and in default of payment was sent to jail.
—Next Wednesday evening Maxwell's Uncle Tom's Cabin company will appear at the opera house in a grand spectacular production of the famous old drama. Their presentation of the play is highly spoken of by all the papers in towns where the company has appeared. Their prices are twenty-five, thirty-five, and fifty cents.
—The miners at the Decatur Coal company's shaft will be paid off today for the past month. There are about one hundred and fifty miners now at work, and among them and the other employees will be divided in the neighborhood of ten thousand dollars. The company is now hoisting about four or five hundred tons of coal a day.
—Judge Tourgee, the famous author of "Fool's Errand," "Bricks Without Straw," and other works, will lecture to-night at the opera house, under the auspices of the Y.
M. C. A. He has a national reputation as an author and lecturer, and requires no paper on the wall to obtain an audience. The announcement that he will lecture to-night is sufficient.
—There was a Wabash wreck at Bement last evening. A freight going up the Chicago branch struck the rear end of another freight on the crossing, and demolished a malahouse and knocked several cars from the track. The extent of the damage could not be learned, and it is not known whether any one was injured, but it was reported here that the engineer and fireman jumped and saved themselves.
—George Jones, charged with assaulting and robbing Thomas Mc-Cormick a week ago on Monday evening, had a preliminary hearing before Squire Eymann yesterday afternoon, and was bound over in the sum of three hundred dollars for his appearance before the January grand jury. He was defended by Attorney Thomas Lee, and was prosecuted by State Attorney Vail. His accomplices, Harry Franks, has not yet been arrested.
—Supervisor Hiram Ward, of Wheatland, who was attending the meeting of the county board Thursday, reports that his partner in the stock business, Mr. D. S. Phillips, had his shoulder dislocated one day recently. He was leading a cow and was thrown to the ground with great force, by the animal giving a sudden jerk. Mr. Phillips did not realize that his shoulder had been dislocated until a day later, when he had it properly attended to.

MATRIMONIAL EVENTS
BUSINESS MAJORS.
Mr. Henry Buskirk, and Miss Ida Majors, of Warrensburg, were married yesterday morning at eleven o'clock, at the residence of Elder Newcomer on North Water. Rev.
Newcomer performed the ceremony.
The couple left immediately afterwards on the Midland train.
AUGUST-BREEST.
Last evening Mr. Edward August of this city, and Miss Katie Breest, of Picketown, Ohio, were married by Rev. T. L. Conitas. The ceremony was performed at the placent little home on West North street, that the couple had previously furnished and arranged for housekeeping.
About twenty-five of their friends were present to witness the event.
After the ceremony, a sumptuous supper was served. The couple received quite a number of useful presents. Mr. August has for some time been connected with Brewer's bakery, and is well known. The friends of the newly married couple wish them happiness. They have already gone to housekeeping.
MILLER-STARE.
The wedding nuptials of Mr. Albert W. Miller and Miss Emma Stare second daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George Stare took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, on North Franklin street.
The happy event was witnessed by about seventy-five invited guests.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
George Stevens, of Stapp's Chapel, promptly at eight o'clock, in the front parlor, the bride and groom standing beneath a beautiful floral bow and arrow suspended from the chandelier. The wedding march was played by Miss Alida Handy. The bride wore a lovely costume of white satin profusely trimmed with delicate white lace and natural flowers for ornaments. At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests pressed forward and offered their congratulations, which were sincere and cordial in their nature. The wedding supper abounded with all the dainties imaginable, and was served on small tables scattered about the rooms. Many beautiful presents were received by the couple, among others being a magnificently bound bible, an album, table linen, etc. The Decatur guards' drum corps presented them with a No. 83 Superior Cook stove. Mr. and Mrs.
Miller went to the residence of the groom's parents on West Prairie street last evening, where they will for the present reside. The groom is employed at the checkrower work of Tat, Conklin & Co. The many friends of the couple wish them a bon voyage o'er the matrimonial sea.

THE CHRISTIAN HAZAR.
A Pleasant and Successful Affair Which Received Liberal Patronage.
The ladies of the Presbyterian church opened their Oriental and Occidental Christmas Bazar at the tabernacle yesterday forenoon, and put on sale a magnificent collection of useful and fancy articles, such as has seldom been equalled. They served dinner and supper and alleviated the hunger of large numbers with choice and substantial edibles.
Last evening the tabernacle presented a gay and happy scene, and was thronged by a large crowd who prom-enaded, ate and purchased at the various booths very liberally. The fancy booths were tastefully draped and trimmed with bright colored goods, handsomely and effectively arranged. They were in charge of the following ladies: CONFECTION STAND—Misses Jeanette Rogers and Nellie Duffee. The French home-made confections were in large demand, and their delicate sweetness was highly complimented.
PAPEE TABLE—Mrs. A. T. Hill and Misses Etta Hale, Lillian Jack, Mabel Duffee and Jennie Wells. They sold fancy paper flowers and other pretty articles.
JAPANESE BOOTH—Mrs. Dr. Hoskins and Miss Mary Wilder and Miss Lillie Chadeay. Tea and cake was served by the ladies in "Mikado" costumes to many callers, and Japanese articles were also disposed of at low rates.
BABY BOOTH—Mrs. Dr. Harsha, Mrs. H. Cole, Mrs. A. J. Harry and Mrs. Charlie Musser. There was a fine display of wearing apparel for little pink-and-angels that did not fail to catch the eye of every mother.
DOLL TABLE—Misses Mabel Alexander, Harriett Howell and Laura Johns. At this table the little girls loved to linger and feast their eyes on the lovely dolls of all sizes and descriptions, from small "cuddled" dolls and gentlemen to silk dressed figures with princess like countenances.
FANCY BOOTH—Misses Lillie Brown, Neva Stewart, Kittie Search, Edie Rogers and Mrs. A. Barnes. Such a tempting array of pretty fancy articles as the ladies stood ready to sell was almost impossible to pass by, and but few did pass, but stopped to make an examination of the prices and goods.
APRON TABLE—Mrs. James Duffee and Misses Carrie Powers, Minnie Lewis and Jessie Mills. The ladies sold all kinds of aprons and had numerous purchasers.
"BUSY BEES"—This little society of industrious maidens presided over a pretty fancy table and were the center of attraction. Miss B. H.
Ewing was present to superintend and aid the little girls, who were dressed in costumes to represent different nationalities as follows: Sui-Serraga, Swiss; Edith Moore, Scotch; Margaret Roberts, German; Marian Ewing, Italian; Gussie Green, Spanish; Edith Lytle, Gypsy; Lillie Vor-nes, French; Lucy Roberts, Tyrolese; Carrie Gussold, Turkish, and Alice Brown, American.
SUPPER AND RE-ASSURANCE TABLES—Mrs. J. T. Hubbard, Mrs. Bruce Sterrett, Mrs. D. R. Alexander, Mrs.
P. Matthews, Mrs. P. Love, Mrs.
Will Sibbey, Mrs. Myra Estabrook, Mrs. George Lower, Mrs. Haug, Mrs.
Dunn and Miss Mary Hardy.
Mr. W. T. Wells acted in the capacity of ticket seller.
The bazar was pronounced a grand success every body, and the able management of the ladies was spoken of in flattering terms. At the request of many patrons the bazar will be opened again at 9 o'clock this morning, for several hours, when various articles will be disposed of at low prices.

MRS. K. EINSTEIN,
Temple of Fashion.
TO THE LADIES OF DECATUR AND SURROUNDING COUNTRY:
You are all familiar with the class of millinery goods I keep—the finest.
On tomorrow I will commence and close out at 50c and 75c on the dollar my entire stock; also take your orders for trimmed hats and bonnets 50 per cent less than our regular prices. This will be a rare opportunity to secure a lovely hat or bonnet for less than you will pay for commoner goods elsewhere. You have all known me long enough to know, when I mark down my goods I mean business. A special invitation to all my friends and the public to call and be suited. This sale will continue from day to day until every dollar's worth is disposed of.
